

A treasure trove of original mid-19th century cases in meticulously authentic restored condition are available to attending workshop students only. Over fifty cases to choose from in the popular sizes from 16th plate to quarter plate. Small is beautiful and especially when your work is housed in one of these gorgeous jewel box like cases over one hundred and sixty years old! Just looking through them is a special treat. Prices start at only $45.