

Ye old glass plate polishing vice. Well, it started out as an antique carpenter's vice and was modified for the purpose of holding a glass plate up to 8x10 in size, nice and steady, while the plate is buffed clean. These are not an essential tool for glass cleaning and actually are somewhat clumsy to work with but they do make for a good show when demonstrating the process before a group. Wow! them for only: $85